POTENTIAL QUESTIONS:

Will my BALLOT be counted if it is received after 7:00 p.m. on November 3, 2020?

Your ballot must be EITHER: (a) delivered to the District office by 7:00 p.m. on November 3, 2020; or (b) postmarked on or before November 3, 2020, and delivered by mail no later than November 6, 2020. Please plan to mail or hand-deliver your ballot prior to November 3, 2020 at 7:00 pm.

Do I vote using a number or a check mark?

Write the number of votes that you wish to cast next to the name of the candidate you wish to cast them for. You may vote for more than one candidate by allocating your total votes among two or more candidates. The total possible votes for your property are listed on the RETURN ENVELOPE and BALLOT. If the total of votes written on the ballot exceeds the total you are allocated, the ballot will be rejected and NOT COUNTED.

Is my vote confidential?

Yes, your BALLOT will be separated from your RETURN ENVELOPE prior to tallying the votes.

Do I need to sign the RETURN ENVELOPE?

Yes, sign it with your name as it appears on the RETURN ENVELOPE.

What if my property title on the RETURN ENVELOPE is owned by a corporation such as Investments Inc., do I need to complete FORM A?

Yes, FORM A will need to be completed, signed, and mailed in the signed RETURN ENVELOPE with the completed BALLOT in the BALLOT ENVELOPE.

What if my property title on the RETURN ENVELOPE is owned and listed as a partnership such as the Jones Family Partnership, do I use FORM A?

Yes, FORM A will need to be completed, signed, and mailed in the signed RETURN ENVELOPE with the completed BALLOT in the BALLOT ENVELOPE

Where do I find the Assessors Parcel Number referred to on FORM A?

It is on the RETURN ENVELOPE.

What if I received a BALLOT package and my neighbor did not?

Have your neighbor call the Reclamation District No. 1000 office at (916) 922-1449.

What if I sold my property and received this BALLOT package in error?

Call the Reclamation District No. 1000 office at (916) 922-1449.

Who is authorized to vote among multiple landowners of a parcel?

Votes are assigned on a per-parcel basis, and may be allocated among candidates in at the discretion of the voter. Specifically:

- For parcels held by spouses, joint tenants or tenants in common: Any spouse, joint tenant or tenant in common shall be presumed to have authority to cast all votes for the parcel upon filing with the election board a certification under penalty of perjury identifying the spouse, joint tenants or tenants-in-common for whom the votes are to be cast (WC §50704.5).
- For parcels that are leased: The landowner, not the lessee, casts votes for the parcel.
- For parcels held under a deed of trust: The votes will be cast by the trustor (the landowner).
- For parcels owned by a corporation: Any officer of the corporation may cast the votes for the parcel.
- For parcels held by a trust or partnership: Any trustee of a trust (if there is more than one, the trustees must designate which one will vote) or member of the partnership may cast the votes for the parcel.

There are no fractional votes, and so fractions will be rounded up to the next whole number of votes.

In the event that there is any discrepancy in the list of persons entitled to vote at the election, or any controversy as to the persons actually entitled to vote, the books and records of the District shall be conclusive.

May the Legal Representative of a Landowner vote for the Landowner?

The legal representative of a landowner may cast votes for that landowner. For example, if ABC Corporation owns a parcel, and ABC Corporation has given John Smith, the president of ABC Corporation, the authority to act as the corporation's legal representative, John Smith may cast votes for ABC Corporation. Any ballot that is cast by a legal representative of a landowner must be accompanied by a certified copy of the legal representative's authority. Enclose this documentation in your RETURN ENVELOPE with your voted ballot.
